THE CANYON GRAND OPENING CELEBRATION IS APRIL 5 AT MONTCLAIR PLACE

Vince Neil to Perform at Opening of Live Music and Entertainment Venue in Inland Empire

MONTCLAIR, Calif., (March 25, 2019) – Montclair Place welcomes the opening of The Canyon on April 5th with a kickoff concert featuring Vince Neil, best known as the lead vocalist of heavy metal band Mötley Crüe. The live music and entertainment venue is the first of its kind in the region, further positioning Montclair Place as the premier Inland Empire shopping, dining and entertainment destination.

Montclair and surrounding area residents can look forward to seeing a dynamic array of iconic classic entertainers right in the Inland Empire. The Canyon, located at the west end of the mall, will boast a state-of-the-art audio/video system and have a capacity of 1,500.

Upcoming shows include Big Bad Voodoo Daddy, The Sugarhill Gang, Jefferson Starship, Buckcherry, Wilson Phillips, Little River Band, Don McLean, Jon Anderson of Yes, Jon B, Judy Collins and more. Easter Brunch will feature Beatles tribute band Hard Day's Night and a special appearance by the Easter Bunny. Mother's Day brunch on May 12 will feature Neil Diamond tribute band Fantastic Diamond, taking the audience on a journey of Neil Diamond's greatest hits spanning the last 40 years. The Canyon can also be booked for private parties and special events.

Tickets for all concerts at The Canyon will range from $20 to $58, and consumers can save on fees if they purchase directly from the box office, either in person or over the phone at 888.645.5006. The box office is located just outside of The Canyon at Montclair Place and is open from 10am to 6pm Monday through Saturday. The club will also house The Edge restaurant, offering full dinner and lunch services. The Edge is open daily from 11am to 10pm. The restaurant will be open for dinner nightly even when there is no concert scheduled.
